

Special Screenings Coming Up At Junction

NT LIVE: AMADEUS

Thursday 2 February, 7pm

All tickets £11

Lucian Msamati plays Salieri in Peter Shaffer's iconic play. Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, a rowdy young prodigy, arrives in Vienna, the music capital of the world – and he's determined to make a splash. Awestruck by his genius, court composer Antonio Salieri has the power to promote his talent or destroy his name. Seized by obsessive jealousy he begins a war with Mozart, with music, and ultimately, with God. After winning multiple Olivier and Tony Awards when it had its premiere at the National Theatre in 1979, Amadeus was adapted into an Academy Award-winning film.

NT LIVE: SAINT JOAN

Thursday 16 February, 7pm

All tickets £11

Bernard Shaw's classic play follows the life and trial of a young country girl who declares a bloody mission to drive the English from France. As one of the first Protestants and nationalists, she threatens the very fabric of the feudal society and the Catholic Church across Europe.

Josie Rourke (Coriolanus, Les Liaisons Dangereuses) directs Gemma Arterton (Gemma Boverly, Made in Dagenham) as Joan of Arc in this electrifying production.

NT LIVE: HEDDA GABLER (Encore)

Thursday 16 March, 7pm

All tickets £11

Just married. Bored already. Hedda longs to be free...

Hedda and Tesman have just returned from their honeymoon and the relationship is already in trouble. Trapped but determined, Hedda tries to control those around her, only to see her own world unravel.

Tony Award-winning director Ivo van Hove returns to National Theatre Live screens with a modern production of Ibsen's masterpiece. Ruth Wilson (Luther, The Affair) plays the title role in a new version by Patrick Marber.
