

FUNNY COW (15)

Wednesday 30 & Thursday 31 May, 7.30pm

Maxine Peake gives a formidable performance as an aspiring female comedian standing up to a violent husband and the sexist Northern comedy club circuit in the 1970s and 80s. From her troubled childhood to her turbulent adult relationships, she uses the raw material of her life experiences to bring her unique style of comedy to the stage. A stand-up comedienne in an all-male world, 'Funny Cow' delivers tragedy and comedy in equal measure.

Directed by: Adrian Shergold (2017, 103 mins)

Starring: Maxine Peake, Paddy Considine, Tony Pitts, Stephen Graham, Kevin Eldon, Vic Reeves, Graham Fellows, Kevin Rowland, Corinne Bailey Rae, Richard Hawley, Alun Armstrong, Christine Bottomley, John Bishop, Hannah Walters

ENGINE ROOM: THE VOYAGE

Saturday 5 May, 8pm

Join Engine Room for The Voyage, as it makes the step from stage to screen. Recorded at Halifax Square Chapel in November 2016, the film captures an intimate and magical performance from the company's much celebrated 2016 tour.

Set-in a jumble-room, filled with stories and suit-cases, The Voyage is a thought-provoking, funny and poignant exploration through the ever-changing landscape of human experience. Tickets are on a pay-as-you-feel basis.

PETER RABBIT (PG)

Fri 18 May, 6pm

Sat 19 May, 2pm

Based on the books by Beatrix Potter, Peter Rabbit takes on the starring role of his own irreverent, contemporary comedy with attitude. Peter and his sisters enjoy their days harassing Mr McGregor in his vegetable garden. But when a new Mr McGregor inherits the land he finds much more than he bargained for. The battle of wills between the two escalates to greater heights than ever before as they rival for the affections of the warm-hearted animal lover who lives next door

Directed by: Will Gluck (2018, 95 mins)

Starring: James Corden, Margot Robbie, Daisy Ridley, Domhnall Gleeson, Elizabeth Debicki, Rose Byrne, Sam Neill, Sia

THE SILENT CHILD (PG) & POWER IN OUR HANDS (PG) DOUBLE BILL

Saturday 19 May, 7.30pm

As part of Deaf Awareness Week, we present a double bill celebrating the Deaf community.

Inspired by real life events, The Silent Child centres around a profoundly deaf four year old girl who lives in a world of silence until a caring social worker teaches her the gift of communication. An insightful short story, inspired by real life events, which observes the avoidable struggles that deaf children face. Winner of Best Live Action Short Film at the 2018 Oscars.

Directed by: Chris Overton (2017, 20 mins)

Starring: Rachel Shenton, Maisie Sly, Rachel Fielding, Philip York, Anna Barry

Power in Our Hands is a ground-breaking documentary about the Deaf community's fight for civil rights and principally, the right to be heard. Combining social history and archive film with contemporary interviews, it explores the secret history and heritage of the Deaf community in the UK and gives a glimpse into Deaf culture that is mostly hidden from the hearing world.

Directed by: Angela Spielsinger (2015, 75 mins)

Starring: Unknown

FINDING YOUR FEET (12A)

Tuesday 22 May, 7.30pm

On the eve of her retirement, snobby Sandra discovers her husband has been having an affair with her best friend. Moving in with her estranged bohemian sister, Bif who lives on an inner city council estate, Sandra joins the local senior citizens dance group, where a chance encounter with Charlie changes everything. Can Sandra let the rhythm in, and cast off the prudish habits of a lifetime? A classic feel-good drama with some favourite faces, this is the story of rediscovering fun and yourself in later life.
