

Story Box

Inside the story box are the beginnings of all the stories never told.

Open the lid and see what is waiting inside.

Pick a beginning and finish the tale to bring the story to life!

You can write your story down, act it out, speak it out loud or draw it - how you tell your story is up to you!

Inside the box was a small glass sphere. A strange light glimmered from inside it somehow. But what was really odd was when I reached for it - it screamed!

So the house was haunted, that was fine. But why couldn't we have a cool ghost, like a pirate or a knight. Why was our ghost just a . . .

It wasn't the first time this had happened and it wouldn't be the last. I only wish it hadn't happened right there in the middle of the supermarket.

The pod zoomed out of the atmosphere and into the dark of space. Earth fell away behind us. That was when Mum gasped and said . . .

I had never won a race ever before, i was always last. But not today. Today i was in front by miles. I was so close to the finish line I could almost touch it. And that was when it happened.

There was only one way out of the room, the door had been locked from the inside and there were no windows. So just how had they escaped?
